

San Mateo County Genealogical Society Library— Finding Aid

San Mateo County 979.469

First Bookstack. Begin your research with the binder at the beginning of the call number. This binder will contain miscellaneous materials that might help in your research as well as a guide to the materials in the collection. There might also be a map and pamphlet box.

Indexes to All SMCGS special collections are available on our website. See Research/Online Data/Databases.

Schellens Collection      979.469 SCH      60 volumes of collected materials on San Mateo County.

County Records and Indexes

Vital Statistics            979.469 VIT      Birth, Marriage, Death, Mortuary
Land Records            979.469 LAND    Deeds, Patents, Mortgages
Naturalization            979.469 NATU    1856-1945 [includes Camp Fremont]
Booking Registers        979.469 SHER    Sheriff's Office Booking Registers 1924-1953

Newspaper Collections

Obituary File            979.469 OBIT
Clipping File            979.469 CLIP
Time and Again          979.469 SVAN
Other Times              979.469 OTHE
Faces/Places            979.469 PENI
Redwood City News      Oversized - see map

Cemetery / Mortuary

979.469 CEME            Cemetery Indexes and Finding Aids
979.469 VIT              Index to the Layng & Tinney Mortuary Records - see orientation

Directories and Yearbooks

979.469 DIRE            All directories are filed together by year
979.469 YRB              All yearbooks and Alumni directories are filed together by year

Major County Histories

979.469 CLOU            Roy Cloud's two volume History of San Mateo County
979.469 STAN            South from San Francisco
979.469 SVAN            Assorted Histories by Michael Svanevik & Sirley Burkett

Maps— see wall for large 19th century map.

Notes: All other publications are filed by call number which is usually the major call number followed by the first 4 letters of the authors last name and then the year of publication. The county binder contains a shelf list which will be updated periodically to aid in finding books. For the most up to date listing, search the online library catalog.